OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS. Proposals will be received in this office until Saturday, the 22d of April next, at 3 o'clock, p. m., for grading and gravelling so much of Maryland avenue, between Seventh street and of Maryiand avenue, between Seventa street and the Potomac bridge, as is not now graded and gravelled, as may be directed by the Commission-er of Public Buildings.

The work is to be of the best character, and to be done to the acceptance of the Commissioner, or such person as he may appoint to inspect it; and all that is to be done, must be done by the 1st day of October next.

The gravelling must be at least twelve inches in depth at the centre of the street, tapering off gradually to six inches in depth at the sides. Security will be required for the faithful performance of the work. Any surplus earth from the grading must be deposited at such place within a reasonable distance, as the Comm designate.

Proposers will state the price per cubic yard for the grading, and per superficial yard for the gravelling, including gravel and all materials. B. B. FRENCH, Commissioner of Public Buildings.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL,
A Phenomenon in Medicine.—Health Restored and Life Lengthened, by Dr. Morse's Invigorating Elixir or Cordial.

A T first the properties attributed to Professor Morse's Invigorating Elixir or Cordial were deemed fabulous. The public often deceived could not believe the simple and sublime truths announced by the discoverer. But facts, undeniable facts, attested by witnesses of the highest class and character, are now triumphing over all doubts.

And character, are now trumpning over an acousts.

Incredulity is overthrown by a mass of testimony which is perfectly irresistible.

The Elixir remedies in all cases the deplorable evils arising from a misuse of the various organs which make up the wonderful machine called man. It restores to full vigor every delicate function connected with that mysterious compound tion connected with that mysterious compound agency of matter and mind, necessary to the reproduction of human life. To persons of feeble muscular frame, or deficient in vital power, it is recommended as the only means of communication. ing that energy which is necessary to the proper enjoyment of all the natural appetites, as well as the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effects are not confined to either sex or to any age. The feeble girl, the ailing wife, the listless, enervated youth, the over-worn man of business, the victim of nervous depression, the individual suffering from general debility, or from the weakness of a single organ, will all find immediate and permanent relief from the use of this incomparable reno-vator. To those who have a predisposition to paralysis, it will prove a complete and unfailing paraysis, it will prove a complete and unfailing safeguard against that terrible malady. There are many, perhaps, who have so trifled with their constitutions, that they think themselves beyond the reach of medicine. Let not even these despair. The Elixir deals with disease as it exists, without reference to causes and will without reference to causes, and will not only remove the disorder itself, but

REBUILD THE BROKEN CONSTITUTION The derangements of the system, leading to nervous diseases, and the forms of nervous disease itself, are so numerous that it would require a column to enumerate the maladies for which this preparation is a specific. A few, however, may be enumerated, viz: neuralgia tic-doloureux, headache, incipient paralysis, hysteria, palpitation of the heart, spinal affections, muscular debility, tremors, flatulence, a pricking sensation in the flesh, numbness, torpidity of the liver, mental depression, weakness of the will, indisposition to move, faintness after exercise, broken sleep, and terrifying dreams, inability to remain in one place terrifying dreams, inability to remain in one piace or position, weaking of the procreative organs, sexual incompetency, melancholy, monomania, fluor albus, sinking at the stomach, female irregularities, a chronic tendency to miscarriage, emaciation, and all complaints growing out of a free indulgence of the passions, and all barrenness that does not proceed from organic causes beyond he reach of medicine. Whenever the organs to be acted upon are ree from malformation or strictural diseases, it is averred that

MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR Will replace weakness with strength, incapacity with efficiency, irregularity with uniform and nat-ural activity, and this not only without hazard of ural activity, and this not only without inzard of reaction, but with a happy effect on the general organization. Bear in mind that all maladies, wherever they begin, finish with the nervous system, and that the paralyzation of the nerves of motion and sensation is physical death. Bear in mind, also, that, for every kind of nervous disease the Elivic Cordial is the only reliable preparation the Elixir Cordial is the only reliable preparation

CURE OF NERVOUS DISEASES. No language can convey an adequate idea of he immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the diseased, debilitated, and shattered nervous system, whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once braced, revivified, and built up. The mental and physical symptoms of nervous disease vanish together under its influence. Nor is the effect temporary; on the contrary, the relief is permanature. nent, for the cordial properties of the medicine reach the constitution itself, and restore it to its normal condition. Well may the preparation be called the MEDICINAL WONDER Of the nineteenth century. It is, as the first scientific man in the world would have admitted. that miracle of medicine heretofore supposed to have no existence. A STIMULANT THAT ENTAILS NO RE ACTION.

Its force is never expanded, as is the case with opium, alcoholic preparations, and all other exci-tants. The effect of these is brief, and it may well be said of him who takes them: "the last state of that man is worse than the first." But the Elixir is an exhilarant without a single drawback-safe in its operation, perpetual in its happy influence upon-the nerves, the mind, and the entire organization; it will also remove depressions, excitement, a tendency to blush, sleeplessness, dislike of society, neapacity for study or busines LOSS OF MEMORY Confusion, giddiness, rush of blood to the head, melancholy, mental debility, hysteria, wretched-ness, thoughts of self-destruction, fear of insanity, hypochondriasis. dyspepsia, general prostration, rritability, nervousness, inability to sleep, diseases neident to females, decay of the propagating functions, hysteria, monomania, vague terrors, palpi-tation of the heart, impotency, constipation, &c., &c., from whatever cause arising it is, if there is any reliance to be placed on human testimony absolutely infallible.

Dr. Morse's Invigorating Cordial has been counterfeited by some unprincipled persons.

In future all the genuine Cordial will have the proprietors' fac-simile pasted over the cork of each bottle, and the following words blown in the glass: "Dr. Morse's Invigorating Cordial,

The Cheapest Medical Journal in the South

THE GEORGIA BLISTER AND CRITIC. THE undersigned will publish in the city Atalanta, Georgia, a monthly journal of medicine under the above name. Each number will contain twenty-four pages, devoted to the development of southern medical literature, and the exposition of the Diseases and physical peculiarities of our negro race.

THE BLISTER AND CRITIC will be independent in everything. It shall not grind for any clique or faction; it will not be the mouthpiece of any cabal, or the organ of any indi vidual. It will stand upon the code of ethics and patronize honorable medicine, sink or swim sensible, and practical papers from the profession throughout the country.

The work is permanently established, and will be issued in March next at $1 00 per year in advance. Persons wishing it will please address the editor, with the needful enclosed, post-paid. March 21. H. A. RAMSAY, M. D., Editor.

Eleventh street, two doors north of Pa. av., Branch of Stationer's Hall, 174 and 176 Pearl street, New York.
From the Washington Union, Nov. 29. The above contains all the information necessary to enable the merchant or shipmaster to transact any branch of custom-house business with ease and despatch, an alphabetical tariff, the manner of passing entries, current forms of oaths, permits, bonds, entries, &c., &c. It has evidently been prepared with a great deal of care, and will be found very useful to the officers of the revenue and custom-house throughout the country, as well as the merchant and shipmaster.

From the Washington Sentinel, Feb 4.

We are indebted to Collins, Bowne & Co. for copy of "Cone's Revenue Digest and Custom-House Guide," containing rules and routine of business in entering and clearing vessels, the man-ner of passing import, export, and transport en-tries, the forms of business in the different departments of customs, a detailed account of the collectors, naval officers, surveyors, and storecollectors, naval officers, surveyors, and store-keepers' offices, and correct forms of entries, oaths, orders, bonds, permits, &c.

This Digest is admirably adapted to the wants of the mercantile public, and it is said to be the best book of the sort ever offered to the public.

"WASHINGTON SENTINEL." PROPOSE to publish in the city of Washing ton, in September, a political newspaper, un the name of the WASHINGTON SENTI NEL.

In doing so, it is proper I should make known the principles it will maintain, and the policy it will advocate.

It will support cordially and earnestly the principles of the Democratic party of the United States. it does not propose to be the organ of any Department of the Government, except in so far as an interpendent maintenance of the doctrines of that party may represent its opinions and express its views.

It will not be ambitious to commend itself to the It will not be ambitious to commend itself to the people by a blind flattery of their rulers. It will seek public support by the bold avowal of the sentiments which are common to the genuine Democracy of the Union, and by the condemnation of all such as may conflict with them, from whatever quarter they may come. It will seek to be (and it will endeavor to deserve the title) the organ of the Democratic party of the United States.

States.
The SENTINEL will maintain, as a fundamental The Sentinel will maintain, as a fundamental truth of that great party, that the States formed the Union between them by the ratification of the Constitution as a compact; by which, also, they created the Federal Government, and delegated to it, as their common agent, the powers expressly specified in it, with an explicit reservation of all others to the States, or to their separate governments. The exercise of any powers beyond these thus delegated, is, therefore, an usurpation of the reserved authority of the States by the agent of their own creation.

The Sentinel will uphold and defend the Union upon the basis of the rights of the States—under the Constitution—and thus by sedulously guarding he latter, it will the more effectually strengthen he latter, it will the more effectually strengthe and perpetuate the former.

With regard to the exercise of the powers of the With regard to the exercise of the powers of the Federal Government, the SENTINEL will take as the principles of its action, that Congress shall exercise no power which has not been delegated by the Constitution, according to a strict and fair interpretation of its language and spirit; and that it shall not seek to attain indirectly an object through the exercise of constitutional power, for the direct attainment of which it has no delegation of power. In other words, all powers exercised must be clearly granted, and all granted powers must be used for no purpose, except such as is clearly intended by the Constitution.

In respect to the internal administration of the tended by the Constitution.

In respect to the internal administration of the Government, the Sentinel will sustain the settled policy of the Democratic party. It will labor to neulcate this cardinal doctrine of Democratic internal policy:—that this Government will best promote the freedom and prosperity of the people of the States, by being less ambitious to exercise power, and more anxious to preserve liberty; and by leaving to the individual States the management of all their domestic concerns—while it concents itself with guarding the confederacy from external violence, and directing the foreign policy of the country to the promotion of the common interests, and defence of the common rights, and honor of the States composing it.

The Sentinel will advocate such a progressive

The SENTINEL will advocate such a progressive The SENTINE will advocate such a progressive foreign policy as will suit itself to the exigencies and correspond with the expanding interests of the country. That policy should be energetic and decided; but should temper firmness with liberality and make its highest ends consist with the strictest principles of justice. The real interests of the country, upon each occasion demanding attention, will be its guide in the course the SENTINEL will

The national policy of the world in this age is essentially aggressive. In the growing sense of weakness of some of the nations of the Old World, and the ambitious restlessness of others, a com-mon motive to colonial extension has developed

Our settled determination to repel interference from abroad with our domestic concerns, will brompt us to avoid it in the affairs of other counprompt us to avoid it in the affairs of other countries, unless by their foreign or colonial policy our peace should be threatened, our security endangered, or our interests invaded. For when theselfish interests of other nations prompt a foreign or colonial policy which infringes upon-our rights, and places in the pathway of our commerce a dangerous and unfriendly rival, such a policy must be resisted by remonstrance, and, if need be, by war.

Our foreign policy should, indeed, be defensive; but to be properly defensive, it must sometimes be apparently aggressive. Our administration should be vigilant, waterful, and energetic. The world is full of important movements, commercial and political, deeply concerning American trade and American power. It is time we had an American foreign policy. We must have it. We cannot avoid it if we would. We have larger interests, and avoid it if we would. We have larger interests, and a greater stake in the world and its destiny, than every other people. We occupy the best portion of a continent, with no reighbors but a colony, and a worn-out, anarchical despotism. We are the only people whose own land, without colonial defendencies, is washed by the two great oceans of the world. Our agricultural productions are more varied and more essential to civilized life, and to human progress—our minecal and manufacturing resources more vast—our facilities and capacity for internal and foreign commerce more extended than those of any other people living under one government. A continent, to a great extent, unexplored and exhaustless in its yet hidden wealth, is at our feet. European trade seeks the great East is at our feet. European trade seeks the great East through avenues which are at our doors, or must be made through our own limits. Europe, Asia, Africa, and the isles of the sea. lying all around Africa, and the isles of the sea, lying all around us, look to us as the rising power, through the agency of whose example, and ever widening and extending, though peaceful influences, the blessings of liberty, civilization, and religion, are destined to triumph over the barbarism and superstition of the millions of the world. And shall such a people refuse to lay hold upon their destiny, and act upon the high mission to which it is called? A mission so full of hope, though so laden with responsibility, which, if properly directed, must make our confederacy the harbinger of peace to the world, as well as the peaceful arbiter of its destiny.

and earnest foreign policy, such as the condition of the country demands; but it will advocate it under the flag of the country—nowhere else. Its foreign policy must be consistent with the spotless honor and unimpeachable good faith of the country. To be respectable at home and abroad, and to be great in the eyes of the world, it must ask for nothing but what is right, and submit to nothing that is wrong. It must be liberal and magnanimous to the rights of others, and firm and immoveable in Such, then, is the chart by which we shall be guided. Independent and free, we shall endeavor to be honest and truthful. The true friends of democratic principles we shall cordially support and defend. Its enemies in the field or in ambush we shall oppose, and on all proper occasions denounce.

To our future brethien of the press we extend the hand of friendly greeting. The Sentiacl is the rival of no press of its own party—the personal enemy of none of the other. The present Democratic Administration has our est wishes for its success in the establishment of the great principles upon which it came into power; and in its honest labors to attain such an end it and in its honest labors to attain such an end will find the Sentinel its friend and coadjutor.
